(please print a copy and bring with you to the museum)

The Dumfries and Galloway Aviation Museum is an independent museum and a registered charity which relies on donations to carry out its work. The Gift Aid admission price includes an element of voluntary donation which enables the museum to claim the tax back on the whole amount paid as part of the government's Gift Aid Scheme. This is currently worth an extra 25p for every £1 you donate and plays a vital role in funding the work of the museum.
